

HONEY BROOK ORGANIC FARM'S MEMBERSHIP CARD POLICY

General Membership Card Policy

- All farm members must visibly wear their membership card when picking up their vegetables. The first time a member forgets their card, they must register with the farm attendant and receive a temporary card, good for that day only. After this, there are no exceptions.
- If you wish to permanently switch your pick-up day or change your share size, you must first check with the office to see if this is possible. If the change can be made, there is a $10.00/card fee to issue an updated card. All cards that were issued for the share must be replaced with updated cards.
- If a card is lost, please notify the office asap. There is a $10.00/card replacement fee.
- To add or remove a share partner mid-season, please notify the office. We need to make sure that new cards can be issued and old cards returned. There is a $10.00/card new card fee.
- If you sell your share mid-season, please notify the office. We need to make sure that new cards can be issued and old cards returned. There is a $10.00/card new card fee.
- Replacement and new cards will be left with the farm attendant for pick up. Please mail the fee for all card(s) to the office at the same time you are requesting them for your share.

On-Farm Pick-up Policy

- All Individual and Family Members and Share Partners will be issued a Membership Card by the farm attendant during your first pick-up. Please check in with the farm attendant upon arrival at the farm.
- Thereafter, Membership Cards must be visibly worn whenever Individual or Family Members/Share Partners visit the farm, including in the pick-your-own fields. You must have your card in order to pick up your vegetables, including p-y-o veggies.
- If someone else is picking up your share and/or p-y-o, they must visibly wear your Membership Card. There are no exceptions, so please plan accordingly.

Delivered Boxed Share Policy

- All Delivered Boxed Share Members and Share Partners will be issued a Membership Card by the farm attendant the first time they visit the farm to harvest pick-your-own crops. Please check in with the farm attendant upon arrival at the farm.
- Thereafter, Membership Cards must be visibly worn whenever Delivered Boxed Share Members/Share Partners visit the farm for pick-your-own-crops or when occasionally switching from the regular drop-off site to picking up produce at the farm (office must be notified in advance).
- If someone else is picking up your p-y-o, they must visibly wear your Membership Card. There are no exceptions, so please plan accordingly.
