Lead Farm Hand Job Description for Honey Brook Organic Farm, with 285 certified organic acres and 110 acres in organic produce production, and a 3,300+ CSA membership. Honey Brook Organic Farm can offer a diverse job experience in a farming operation, which continues to expand its crop offerings and production technologies, including season extension. As one of the largest and oldest certified organic CSA farms in the nation, we are a model of sustainable, profitable farming and have much experience to share with employees.

- The position is for work to be performed at our farms located at 260 Wargo Road, Pennington, NJ & 258 Crosswicks-Ellisdale Road, Chesterfield, NJ
- Work schedule for the position is Monday through Friday, 8am – 5pm, with a one-hour lunch break from 12-1pm, unless workload dictates otherwise. This is a year-round, hourly position, but weekly hours decrease during the months of December through February.
- Lead Farm Hand is supervised directly by Jim Kinsel, Farm Manager.

The Lead Farm Hand is responsible for assisting the Farm Manager with field management and preparation (including mowing, tillage, soil fertility, transplanting, cultivation & irrigation management oversight), as well as assisting with special projects like tunnel and greenhouse installation and maintenance. Also will be responsible for the pruning and harvest management of nut/fruit trees. Occasional driving of refrigerated box truck for supply pick-up and produce delivery. Must be capable of record keeping and the management of field staff.

This is a fast paced, diverse work environment where attention to detail must be maintained. Successful candidate has the ability to work independently, prioritize work, anticipate issues and problems and develops solutions, and is pro-active in detecting field pests and diseases as well as to ameliorate the conditions that allow pests/diseases to become established. Works in collaboration with field and farm managers.

Accrued sick time pay and one “Individual” share of produce included as part of compensation package. Shared housing may available. Email resume to: sherry@honeybrookorganicfarm.com or mail to Honey Brook Organic Farm, PO Box 1096, Pennington, NJ 08534. Pursuant to state law, this position is not eligible for overtime pay.
